PORTS OF CALL

AUG 26/27: PAPEETE, Society Islands Papeete, on Tahiti, is the capital of French Polynesia. The largest island in French Polynesia, towers over the South Pacific ocean like a proud and royal Queen. The mountainous interior of Tahiti Island is adorned with mystical valleys, clear streams, and high waterfalls. Most of the island's population resides near the shore, leaving the interior of the island feeling almost untouched and ancient, despite such proximity to the bustling capital of Papeete. Papeete, meaning "water basket," was once a gathering place where Tahitians came to fill their calabashes with fresh water. Beside the port, busy Place Vai'ete fills with roulottes, or food carts, in the evenings. Nearby, the large Marché de Papeete market sells local produce, fish and handicrafts. The Robert Wan Pearl Museum focuses on the local pearl industry and sells jewelry. A red spire tops the 19th-century Notre Dame Cathedral.

AUG 28: HUAHINE, Society Islands Huahine casts a spell over you from the moment you arrive. The enchanted Huahine, with its lush forests, untamed landscape and quaint villages can feel like the Garden of Eden. A deep, crystal-clear lagoon surrounds the two islands that comprise Huahine, while magnificent bays and white sand beaches add drama to the experience. Relatively unchanged by the modern world, Huahine Island offers the slower, more tranquil pace of old French Polynesia. With only eight small villages scattered across the island, the few residents welcome visitors with great kindness. Not surprisingly, this fertile world offers a rich soil providing the local farmers a bountiful harvest of vanilla, melons and bananas.

AUG 30/31: RAROTONGA & AITUTAKI, Cooks Islands The quintessential tropical getaway and an authentic repository of the culture of the South Seas. The largest of the 15 fabled Cook Islands, Rarotonga is lush and rugged and embraced by sugar-white sands. And, triangular-shaped Aitutaki is known for having one of the world's most beautiful lagoons.

SEP 2/3: BORA BORA, Society Islands Bora Bora is a small South Pacific island northwest of Tahiti in French Polynesia. Surrounded by sand-fringed motus (islets) and a turquoise lagoon protected by a coral reef, it's known for its scuba diving. It's also a popular luxury resort destination where some guest bungalows are perched over the water on stilts. At the island's center rises Mt. Otemanu, a 727m dormant volcano, where the lush tropical slopes and valleys of the Mount blossom with hibiscus, while palm-covered motu circle the illuminated lagoon like a delicate pearl necklace from the islands of French Polynesia..

SEP 4: TAHA'A, Society Islands Tiny motu with luminous white sand beaches surround the flower-shaped island with a soft mountain rising from the calm waters of a lagoon. Vanilla-scented air wafts on breezes that pour down the hillsides from the island's many vanilla farms, and those gentle aromas ride the ocean breezes proclaiming the island's soul long before you can see it on the horizon. The island of Taha'a is captivating. Slanted palm trees rise above pristine white sand beaches, crystal clear waters and overwater bungalows.

SEP 5/6: MOOREA, Society Islands Moorea is known for its jagged volcanic mountains and sandy beaches. In the north, Mount Rotui overlooks picturesque Ōpūnohu Bay and the settlements around Cook's Bay. Inland, hiking trails wind through rainforest on the slopes of Mount Tohivea. The Belvedere Lookout has panoramic views of the island's peaks and Tahiti beyond. Pastel-painted houses, surrounded by gardens of hibiscus and birds of paradise, circle the island in a necklace of happy, simple villages that will elevate your senses and remind you that this is what life is all about. La vie heureuse, as they say in Tahiti, a happy life. One of the most memorable locations in The Islands of Tahiti, Moorea's beauty is unforgettable.

ACCENT ON TRAVEL DISCLOSURE & CONSENT FORM

Your signature or "click" if presented via a link will signify your agreement with the following terms and conditions on behalf of yourself and all members of your traveling party.

You agree to review your itinerary & other travel documents for accuracy and to inform us promptly of any issues. You agree to provide Accent on Travel required information including your name as it appears on your government issued ID to process travel documents accurately. You assume full and complete responsibility for checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements of your destination and your connecting points, and all conditions regarding health, safety, security, political stability, and labor or civil unrest at such destination. Passports must be valid for 6 months or more after the date of entry for international travel. I further acknowledge that beginning October 1, 2021, I must present a driver's license or another form of ID that complies with the Federal Real ID Act (www.dhs.gov/real-id).

Accent on Travel acts as a sales agent for any airline, hotel, tour company, cruise line or other service provider named in your itinerary or confirmation ("Suppliers"). We are not responsible for the acts or omissions of the suppliers or their failure to adhere to their own schedules, provide services or refunds, financial default, failure to honor future trip credits. We have no special knowledge regarding the financial condition of the Suppliers and no liability for recommending a trip credit in lieu of a refund. We strongly recommend the use of a credit card to exercise your rights under the Fair Credit Billing Act. However, if we are the credit card merchant, our role is to facilitate the sale and to provide design and consulting services, collect funds on your behalf, and remit funds to the Suppliers. If the Suppliers do not provide the services, your only recourse would be against the Suppliers, and you agree not to initiate a chargeback against us for their services or product or for our travel services. You agree to present any claims against us within 30 days after your trip ends and to file suit within one year of the incident, and you acknowledge that this expressly limits the applicable statute of limitations to one year. You agree that the courts in Sussex County, DE will be the exclusive jurisdiction for all claims brought by you or us, and you hereby submit to the personal jurisdiction of those courts.

For medical & health information, we recommend going to the Center for Disease Control website at www.cdc.gov/travel. It is your personal decision to travel and you are doing so with full knowledge of current travel recommendations and travel restrictions with regard to the risks of Covid-19. You hereby expressly assume all of these risks and dangers, and you hereby expressly agree to forever release, discharge and hold us, and our agents, employees, officers, directors, associates, affiliated companies, guides, group leaders, and subcontractors harmless against any and all liability, actions, causes of actions, suits, claims, and demands of any and every kind and nature whatsoever which you now have or which may hereafter arise out of or in connection with these risks and dangers.

In the case of a full group cancellation due to circumstances beyond our control, the group travel program will be moved to another departure date and you will be notified. Payments made will become future travel credits applied to the new booking if you choose to proceed and a service fee for our efforts will apply. If you choose to cancel off the new departure date, any applicable cancellation policies in place will apply. Accent on Travel planning, change, and other fees at Accent on Travel and understand these fees are nonrefundable regardless of travel taking place. If a Supplier drops the price of a trip after booking, we will assist with the rebooking if the offer applies and a fee may apply. We do not guarantee any refunds or successful rebookings.

Travel arrangements involving airline and cruise components are subject to Suppliers' supplemental price increases that may be imposed by the supplier and/or government, even after you have completed your purchase. You hereby consent to any such price increases and authorize your credit or debit card to be used for them. Suppliers have their own contracts covering cancellation penalties and other terms and conditions, and you may be bound by those contracts regardless of whether you receive notice of their terms. You agree to use air tickets with the intent to use them as purchased with the reservation fare rules currently in place.

Travel Insurance Premium Information: Refunds are available for cancellations due to covered medical reasons when insurance is purchased through reliable travel insurance companies. These reputable companies offer insurance that both provides excellent coverage even when the covered medical reason might be a pre-existing conditions as well as refund of out of pocket expenses while traveling (each insurance company stipulations outlined in their policy and brochure). You, the passenger, or your immediate family is responsible to file a claim with the insurance company to receive your refund of cancellation penalties for covered reasons from the insurance company. The cost of insurance is not a refundable or reimbursable item but may be able to be transferred to another purchase if the trip is cancelled without the insurance being used.
