Day by Day Cruise Itinerary

June 25 Rome (Civitavecchia) Rome seems to have its own gravitational pull, attracting not only millions of tourists each year, but also the most creative artists and thinkers of every era. All that surrounds a visitor in Rome—the stunning art and architecture, the grandeur of scale and the lively (almost hyper-animated) citizens—guarantees an unforgettable trip.

June 26 Naples Naples is located in the beautiful Campania region, and many visitors use the city as a base to explore the surrounding areas, particularly Mount Vesuvius, the amazingly preserved cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum, the Amalfi Coast and the island of Capri. Within Naples itself, historic sights are so numerous that you can't help but come across them. The National Archaeological Museum is one of the best in the world, and the Museo di Capodimonte houses a collection of art that includes the Farnese Collection and rivals the Uffizi in Florence. Strolling along the Gulf of Naples with Mount Vesuvius in the background, you can quickly forget the chaos of the Centro Storico.

June 27 Messina, Sicily The third largest settlement on the island of Sicily, Messina is an interesting mixture of old and new architecture, as much of the city had to be rebuilt following earthquakes in the 19th and 20th centuries. Be sure to visit the Piazza del Duomo to see Orologio Astronomico, the world's largest astronomical clock.

June 28 Valletta Valletta is Malta's delightful capital city and a World Heritage site. During a visit in 1830, British Prime Minister Benjamin Disraeli described Valletta as "a city of palaces built by gentlemen, for gentlemen." Indeed, what better place to construct lavish buildings and store valuable objects than in a well-fortified city? Although defense was foremost in their minds, the Knights of Malta couldn't have chosen a more scenic spot for their headquarters: The hilly peninsula between two large natural harbors provides wonderful views in nearly every direction.

June 29 At Sea

June 30 Mykonos Set like gems in the sparkling blue Aegean Sea, each of the Cyclades islands has its own character. For Mykonos, the local culture is a mix of the sacred and the profane. This island is the gateway to the neighboring unoccupied island of Delos, the sacred center of the Cyclades. Mykonos Town, the capital, is the center of activity on the island. Don't let its reputation for bacchic behavior discourage you from visiting. Go during the daytime if you want to experience a more traditional side of town. Take time to stroll its warrenlike streets, many of which are no wider than a sidewalk. On each side are smooth, whitewashed cubes whose doors and windows are splashed with bright colors. Bougainvilleas, clematis and geraniums cascade from the wooden balconies.

July 1 & July 2 Istanbul For the better part of two millennia, Istanbul, Turkey, has been one of the greatest cities in the world, and it remains one of the most vibrant and magical places in Europe and the Middle East. It is not the capital of Turkey—that honor was bestowed on Ankara in the 1920s—but Istanbul is the country's largest city, its main commercial, historical and cultural center and the heart of its tourism industry.

July 3 Kusadasi (Ephesus) Kusadasi is one of Turkey's coastal megaresort cities and is particularly popular with visitors from Northern Europe who throng its lively Bar Street in summer. At first glance, little remains of Scala Nuova, the town that stood there in the Middle Ages. However, near the port stands a massive 17th-century caravanserai (caravan traveler's inn) that today plays host to "Turkish Night" entertainment. Today the port plays host to numerous cruise ships throughout summer, which means that the shops in the center are often frantically busy for a few hours in the middle of the day. Their prices inevitably reflect the presence of a captive clientele with little time to compare.

July 4 Santorini Santorini, the southernmost of the Greek Cyclades, has to be one of the world's most dramatically beautiful islands. Its unique topography is the result of a massive volcanic eruption some 3,600 years ago, which blew the middle out of the island to create a caldera, a volcanic crater filled with deep blue water from the Mediterranean Sea.

July 5 Athens (Piraeus) Piraeus may not have the cosmopolitan cachet and renown of Athens, but for those seeking a slice of genuine, informal Greek atmosphere, it is well worth exploring. And for ship aficionados, Piraeus is practically para

Original Deposit Date to March 8th, 2023
March 9th 2023 through travel dates

$150 PP cancel penalty, plus any additional purchases noted as non-refundable
- Up to 100 % of vacations costs in penalty, dependent on cancellation date. Accent On Travel Cancellation fees will also apply. Exact cancellation penalty dates will be noted on your invoice, Custom pre/post excursions, and airline penalties are subject to their own terms also shown on invoice at the time of booking.

Premium Travel Insurance: Refunds are available for cancellations due to covered medical reasons when insurance is purchased through reliable travel insurance companies. These reputable companies offer insurance that both provides excellent coverage even when the covered medical reason might be a pre-existing condition as well as refund of out of pocket expenses while traveling (each insurance company stipulations outlined in their policy and brochure). You, the passenger, or your immediate family is responsible to file a claim with the insurance company to receive your refund of cancellation penalties for covered reasons from the insurance company. The cost of insurance is not a refundable or reimbursable item but may be able to be transferred to another purchase if the trip is cancelled without the insurance being used.

Accent on Travel Terms & Conditions

Your signature or "click" if presented via a link will signify your agreement with the following terms and conditions on behalf of yourself and all members of your traveling party. You agree to review your itinerary & other travel documents for accuracy and to inform us promptly of any issues. You agree to provide Accent on Travel required information including your name as it appears on your government issued ID to process travel documents accurately. You assume full and complete responsibility for checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements of your destination and your connecting points, and all conditions regarding health, safety, security, political stability, and labor or civil unrest at such destination. Passports must be valid for 6 months or more after the date of entry for international travel. I further acknowledge that beginning October 1, 2021, I must present a driver's license or another form of ID that complies with the Federal Real ID Act (www.dhs.gov/real-id). Accent on Travel acts as a sales agent for any airline, hotel, tour company, cruise line or other service provider named in your itinerary or confirmation ("Suppliers"). We are not responsible for the acts or omissions of the suppliers or their failure to adhere to their own schedules, provide services or refunds, financial default, failure to honor future trip credits. We have no special knowledge regarding the financial condition of the Suppliers and no liability for recommending a trip credit in lieu of a refund. We strongly recommend the use of a credit card to exercise your rights under the Fair Credit Billing Act. However, if we are the credit card merchant, our role is to facilitate the sale and to provide design and consulting services, collect funds on your behalf, and remit funds to the Suppliers. If the Suppliers do not provide the services, your only recourse would be against the Suppliers, and you agree not to initiate a chargeback against us for their services or product or for our travel services. You agree to present any claims against us within 30 days after your trip ends and to file suit within one year of the incident, and you acknowledge that this expressly limits the applicable statute of limitations to one year. You agree that the courts in Sussex County, DE will be the exclusive jurisdiction for all claims brought by you or us, and you hereby submit to the personal jurisdiction of those courts.

We assume no responsibility for and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions on the part of any other party not under our control or any acts of God, unsafe conditions, terrorism, health hazards including pandemics, illness, weather hazards, or the suitability for a disabled person of any portion of any trip. We have no special knowledge of dangers during travel or at destinations. For information related to such dangers, we recommend going to www.travel.state.gov. For medical & health information, we recommend going to the Center for Disease Control website at www.cdc.gov/travel. It is your personal decision to travel and you are doing so with full knowledge of current travel recommendations and travel restrictions with regard to the risks of Covid-19. You hereby expressly assume all of these risks and dangers, and you hereby expressly agree to forever release, discharge and hold us, and our agents, employees, officers, directors, associates, affiliated companies, guides, group leaders, and subcontractors harmless against any and all liability, actions, causes of actions, suits, claims, and demands of any and every kind and nature whatsoever which you now have or which may hereafter arise out of or in connection with these risks and dangers. In the case of a full group cancellation due to circumstances beyond our control, the group travel program will be moved to another departure date and you will be notified. Payments made will become future travel credits applied to the new booking if you choose to proceed and a service fee for our efforts will apply. If you choose to cancel off the new departure date, any applicable cancellation policies in place will apply. Accent on Travel planning, change, and other fees at Accent on Travel and understand these fees are nonrefundable regardless of travel taking place. If a Supplier drops the price of a trip after booking, we will assist with the rebooking if the offer applies and a fee may apply. We do not guarantee any refunds or successful rebookings.

Travel arrangements involving airline and cruise components are subject to Suppliers' supplemental price increases that may be imposed by the supplier and/or government, even after you have completed your purchase. You hereby consent to any such price increases and authorize your credit or debit card to be used for them. Suppliers have their own contracts covering cancellation penalties and other terms and conditions, and you may be bound by those contracts regardless of whether you receive notice of their terms. You agree to use air tickets with the intent to use them as purchased with the reservation fare rules currently in place.

You understand that you can purchase travel insurance through Accent on Travel to cover certain risks inherent in travel such as the inability to travel or continue to travel due to a medical situation, supplier bankruptcy, travel interruption, baggage loss, etc. Refunds are available for cancellation prior to departure through the insurance company when cancellations are due to covered medical reasons. You, or your representative, are responsible to file a claim with the insurance company directly and to alert them as soon as possible after an event occurs.

Yes, I would like to protect my financial investment and purchase travel insurance (currently at 7.6% of my trip purchases) which can reimburse me for cancellation prior to travel due to medical reasons, emergencies while traveling, medical evacuation, provide lost luggage reimbursement and more..

No, I am not interested in buying insurance to protect my travel investment and understand that out of pocket expenses & fees for cancellations, delays, or changes of services will not be reimbursed. I accept responsibility to confirm insurance is purchased on my behalf if I change my mind at a later date.
